

ROUNDABOUT—Supplement

FRANKFORT, KY., NOVEMBER 20, 1886.

The End of the Centennial—Turning the Centennial Records Over to the City.

THANKSGIVING DAY, NOV. 25, 1886, AT 3 O'CLOCK.

It was in the original plan of the Centennial to turn over all of the records to the city of Frankfort publicly on Centennial day, but this feature having been omitted on the printed programme for the 6th of October, these records still remain in the possession of Col. John L. Scott, who has selected 3 o'clock on Thanksgiving day, Thursday, Nov. 25th, 1886, to discharge his trust and turn all these valuable records over to the city at the Opera House. Thanksgiving day has been selected because on that day our people will be free from all business cares and in a proper mood for just such exercises as these.

All are cordially invited to be at the Opera House precisely at 3 o'clock and enjoy the execution of the following:

PROGRAMME.

1. Col. John L. Scott's short address turning over the records.
2. A song, John Anderson—By Miss Nellie Orbison.
3. A response—By Hon. E. H. Taylor, Jr., Mayor.
4. A song—By Miss Belle Sanders.
5. Col. Ford's City of the Dead—By Miss Nannie Browder.
6. A song—By Miss Nellie Orbison.
7. The Drift-pile, a quaint production—By the Author.
8. A song—By Miss Belle Sanders.
9. Impromptu short speeches by Governor Knott, Judge Sneed, John C. Herndon and several others, in which suggestions will be made as to the best way to preserve these records and make them useful.

The exercises will close with a familiar chorus by Prof. Wayland Graham and all the vocal musical talent of Frankfort, in which the audience will join in old love feast style.

On Monday a fire occurred at Alton, Anderson county, nine miles from this city, destroying the hotel of Wm. Vaughn, a store-room owned by Vaughn and occupied by J. W. Davis as a grocery, and a small office adjoining, owned by G. W. Gaines. The buildings and contents were totally destroyed. There was insurance to the amount of $5,400 upon the buildings and contents, which will probably cover the loss.

Annie Patterson, an old colored woman 114 years old, died at the residence of her son in this city, on Saturday morning.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Franklin County Teachers' Association will meet at Stedmantown on the 4th Saturday (27th) of November, 1886, and with the school will render the following

PROGRAMME:

1. Opening Address—Thos. Hunter.
2. Free Calisthenics—By the Class.
3. Essay—Miss Maggie Innes.
4. Dialogue—Masters Innes, Martin and Triplett.
5. Compulsory Education—Thos. B. Ford.
6. Essay—Miss Katie Shipp.
7. Politeness—Miss Nelly Cox.

RECESS.

1. Dialogue—By the History Class.
 2. Local Taxation in aid of Schools—Thos. W. Scott.
 3. Song—Miss Nelly Cox.
 4. Essay—Miss Mary T. Merna.
 5. Essay—Miss Annie Haggins.
 6. Dialogue—By Small Class.
 7. Essay—Shadows—Miss Hannah Innes.
- We hope every teacher and friend of common schools that can will be present upon this occasion, and give us their aid and counsel in our efforts to arouse an interest in the "Children's Cause."

T. HUNTER,
President F. C. T. A.

If people troubled with colds, would take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral before going to Church or places of entertainment, they would avoid coughing, greatly to the comfort of speakers and hearers. The Pectoral wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the voice.

Windy Farm Notes.

Mr. George W. Mitchell left last week for Illinois with a view of locating.

Mr. Jarrett Moore and wife, who have been visiting friends in Clark county the past two weeks, have returned home.

Mr. Sam Sharp, father of Mrs. R. B. Exum, has been confined to his bed for several weeks past.

Mr. Victor Newlingand and wife, who have been visiting in Bardstown the past two weeks, have returned home.

Mrs. Hiram Wyrum, who has been very ill for the past month, is able to be out again.

Dorsie Quire, son of Mrs. John Quire, has been quite sick the past two weeks.

While Miss Mary Trumbo, daughter of Mr. Robert Trumbo, was on her way to school last Friday, her pony took fright at a falling tree, which was being cut down on the farm of Mr. D. B. Walcutt, and threw her off, bruising her head and arms very badly, but we are glad to say no bones were broken.

Last Saturday evening Master Carroll Walcutt was on his way to the farm of Mr. D. B. Walcutt, old John, the horse he was riding, got the bit between his teeth and started in a gallop for home. Carroll leaped off and escaped with a few scratches about the head.

A handsome new stable has been erected at the Feeble-minded Institute. It was built by the boys and paid for by the tax-payers. DIXIE.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DURETT, PROPRIETORS LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

Our market for the past week has been without any especial change. There has been sold up to this date 89 hhds. of the new crop against 690 hhds. to the same date last year. As a rule new burley has been deficient in body, toughness and color, such grades have sold low. There has been a few hhds. of good color and character that have sold fairly well. Sales for the week 1,635 hhds. Sales for the year 117,056 hhds. Receipts this week 578 hhds. Prices remain unchanged.
